

CULTURAL EXPLORATIONS A HORSE SONG

July 2 – 14, 2026

TRIP SUMMARY

Every summer, Mongolians celebrate their age-old festival known as the Naadam. One of the chief events of Naadam is horse racing. For the competition, nomads begin training their fastest horses several weeks in advance, with daily riding by their jockeys so that the horses get rid of unnecessary weight. These jockeys are children aged between 8-16. During the training rides and the race itself, they shout a special warlike song called Giingoo, which we call the “horse song.” When Mongolians hear this song over the grassland, everyone is excited and humbled.

The journey begins at the Lake Hovsgol where we will have an opportunity to ride and camp under the stars. Then we’ll visit Central Mongolia where we will have exclusive access to the horse trainers’ camps and learn how horses are trained for the Naadam Festival. The journey concludes in the Gobi Desert, where the children can enjoy a camel riding experience and dinosaur fossil hunting at the legendary Flaming Cliffs.

ITINERARY

DAY 1, JUL 2: ARRIVAL

Upon arrival at the Chinggis Khan International Airport in Ulaanbaatar, meet your guide and transfer to your hotel.

After resting in your hotel room, enjoy a brief city tour including a visit to the Zaisan Hill where you can get a bird's eye view of the city.

This old Soviet period relic is a popular place for the locals to hang out and offers a great panoramic view of the entire city. In the evening, enjoy a welcome dinner at one of the fine local restaurants. Overnight at hotel.

(Hotel Bayangol or similar; D)

DAY 2, JUL 3: ULAANBAATAR / LAKE KHOVSGOL

In the morning, we will transfer to the airport for our morning flight to Lake Khovsgol, Mongolia's largest fresh water lake and the headwaters of Lake Baikal in Russia. Upon arrival, meet your guide and transfer to the lake. Overnight in gers.

(Ger Camp; B, L, D)

DAY 3, JUL 4: HORSEBACK RIDING AT LAKE KHOVSGOL

After breakfast, enjoy a full day of horseback riding along the lakeshore. We will start riding south and return to the camp from its northern direction by making a large loop. There will be plenty of opportunities to stop and explore the local flora and fauna along the route.

Overnight in gers. (Ger Camp; B, L, D)

DAY 4, JUL 5: BULGAN PROVINCE/ SAIKHAN SOUM

In the morning, we will drive south to Bulgan province, known for its horses, an Olympic judo champion hero, and beautiful forested mountain scenery.

Overnight in tents. (Tent Camp; B, L, D)

DAY 5, JUL 6: HORSE BREEDER FAMILY

We will spend this day with a horse breeder family and learn about their life and culture.
Overnight in tents. (Tent Camp; B, L, D)

DAY 6, JULY 7 KHARAKHURUM / NAADAM FESTIVAL

In the morning, drive south to the Kharakhorum, the 13th century capital of Mongolia. We will visit the Erdenezuu Monastery and nearby archeological sites. In the next day, we will enjoy participating at the Naadam Festival of Mongolia, the country's age-old festival. For two days, Mongolians compete in archery, horse racing and wrestling and test their skill and agility. The local Naadam dates vary each year and we will find the best suitable games where our host family will be participating at.
Overnight in gers. (Ger Camp; B, L, D)

DAY 7-9, JULY 8-10 DELGERKHANGAI SOUM

This morning, we will drive south east to the Delgerkhangai soum and camp next to our host herder family for the following several days. Every day, we will observe how they train their race horses and will have an opportunity to ride them.
Overnight in tents. (Tent camp; B, L, D)

DAY 10, JULY 11 DALANZADGAD

This morning, we will bid farewell to our host family and drive further south to Dalanzadgad, the provincial capital of South Gobi province. In the afternoon, drive to the Yol Valley located in the Gobi Gurvan Saikhan National Park. Yol Valley is named after the reknowned “Yol,” or lammergeier, a large bird of prey that dwells in the higher cliffs of the valley. The valley stream contains ice that persists as late as July. Many of the Gobi’s wildlife including Ibex, “Argali” or mountain wild sheep, and snow leopards live here. Stroll through the valley and enjoy a picnic lunch. Return to the ger camp in the evening. Overnight in gers. (Ger Camp; B, L, D)

DAY 11, JULY 12 HAVTSGAIT PETROGLYPHS / FLAMING CLIFFS

In the morning, explore the Havtsgait Petroglyphs, an amazing collection of early Bronze Age rock carvings located on the top of a mountain. Next, transfer to our ger camp near the Gobi Gurvan Saikhan National Park. In the evening, we will drive to the Flaming Cliffs, red sandstone bluffs stretching about 3 km in wide, where hundreds of dinosaur fossils have been found. Paleontological expeditions from many countries, including from U.S, Poland, Japan and Russia have worked here in the last 80 summer new discoveries are made. Return to ger camp in the evening. Overnight in gers. (Approx. 4 hours driving; Ger Camp; B, L, D)

DAY 12, JULY 13 ULAANBAATAR

In the morning, we will transfer to the airport for our return flight back to Ulaanbaatar for our last day of exploration. Spend the remainder of the day for last minute shopping and sightseeing. In the evening, enjoy a cultural performance featuring the khoomii or “throat” singing followed by a hearty farewell dinner at a fine local restaurant.

(Hotel Bayangol or similar; B, L, D)

TRAVEL NOTES

How to get to Mongolia

The official Mongolian international civil flight carriers Mongolian Airlines or MIAT. Currently it serves flights between Beijing, Seoul, Tokyo, Hong Kong, Bangkok and Frankfurt. Other popular airlines include Asiana, Pusan and Turkish airlines. South Korea is the most common international gateway city to Ulaanbaatar. Mongolian Airlines and Turkish Airlines fly daily to/from Istanbul. If you are coming from Europe, you may also find Turkish Airlines a convenient connection. During the summer season, if no seats are available on any of these major carriers, there are ways to fly to Mongolia through local cities in China and Russia. Please contact us for more information. The seats are usually in high demand and booking needs to be done well in advance.

Visa Information

U.S, Canadian, Japanese, Australian and citizens of most European counties are allowed to enter Mongolia without a visa for up to 30 days. All other nationals are required to get a visa before entering Mongolia.

Weather

Mongolia enjoys over 280 sunny days a year. However, because Mongolia has a continental weather pattern, weather can fluctuate drastically during any given day. We recommend packing warm clothes even if you are coming during the hottest months. Our pre-departure information will provide details regarding the weather along with a suggested packing list. Layering is the best plan to be ready for a wide array of Mongolian weather patterns.

Accommodation

Newly renovated Soviet era hotels are located at some of the best locations in downtown Ulaanbaatar. They offer comfortable rooms and friendly services. There are also newer hotels like Kempinski Khan Palace, Ramada Ulaanbaatar and Best Western Inn. The countryside accommodations are arranged in “ger camps,” which provide authentic nomadic felt tents with centralized bathroom and toilet facilities located nearby. They offer clean, comfortable beds and plentiful meals.

Safety

Mongolia is devoid of any political, religious and ethnic sectarian conflicts and is considered one of the safest countries in the world for international travelers. However, like in any other country, crimes do happen, so a good sense of caution and respect shown to the locals can help to avoid unnecessary confrontations. Mongolians are generally hospitable people who love to interact with foreigners.

Food

Mongolia’s capital, Ulaanbaatar, hosts an excellent collection of fine restaurants of international cuisine. In the countryside, tour establishments offer hearty meals with a balance of meat and vegetables. Meat in Mongolians excellent in that the whole country is essentially “free-range” terrain. Even your strictest dietary restrictions can now be met with proper information in advance and preparation by us.

Information about Currency and Payment Methods

Mongolia's national currency is called tugrik and the exchange rate is about 3,400 tugrik to a US dollar. Major currencies can be exchanged at the hotels and pawnshops, and ATM machines are widely available throughout Ulaanbaatar and provincial centers. However, Australian dollars can usually only be exchanged at banks. Traveler's checks can be cashed at banks and major credit cards are accepted at most places in the capital, but only Mongolian cash is accepted in the countryside. We recommend that you travel with Mongolian national currency equal to at least $200 when touring in the countryside.

Souvenirs

Like any other places, Mongolia offers great souvenirs ranging from camel wool sweaters to cashmere scarves and traditional wooden puzzle games. Mongolian vodkas can be an excellent gift. At several stores, you can also find a range of traditional Mongolian musical instruments such as the famed Morin Khuur or "horse headed fiddle." Bargaining is not very customary; most items are sold for the price on their labels. If you plan to shop for souvenirs, we recommend purchasing locally as many items as possible since your purchases will be a direct contribution to the local community.

Travel Insurance

With Mongolia stretching over 1.5 million square kilometers and its population concentrated in the cities, we will be traveling through some remote areas away from good roads and medical facilities. We strongly recommend that you consider getting standard emergency medical evacuation insurance as a means to protect yourself from unexpected accidents that can happen during any trip. Nothing is better than traveling with peace of mind knowing that you have prepared for the trip as much as possible in advance.

Traveling with Mongolia Quest

Because it is still a developing country, traveling in Mongolia requires a sense of humor and patience. New roads and bridges are being built every year, but the paved road system is still limited in the countryside. You may experience flight delays and find road conditions bumpy and dusty. But the experience of traveling in Mongolia will far exceed some personal compromises in comfort. We like to say that the best part of traveling in Mongolia is spontaneous events and interactions, which lead to unexpected interactions, discoveries, and experiences that will make your trip unique and memorable. At Mongolia Quest, we ensure the integrity of your overall itinerary but at the same time, will go out of our way to make necessary changes in order to enrich your travel experience with us.

ENJOY YOUR TRIP!
